

Technical Publications Web Site Registration User's Guide

This User's Guide provides detailed instructions on how to register on the Beechcraft Technical Publications website. For instructions on how to access Online Service Information and Online Manuals, see separate instructions in the Help/FAQ section. A User's Guide is also available on managing publications orders and subscriptions online. Note: Use Internet Explorer 7 or above for best viewing of the site.

The Technical Publications website is located at <http://pubs.beechcraft.com>. The site can also be accessed by going to the Beechcraft home page (<http://www.beechcraft.com>) and click on Global Customer Support, Technical Publications then the submenu Overview. To view technical data (including Online Service Information, Online Manuals, Supplement Packs, etc.) users need to create an account. If you are a Hawker Beechcraft Parts & Distribution (formerly known as Rapid) online customer, please use the same web username and password for Technical Publications.

To create a new web account, click on "Create Account". To log in with an existing web account, click on "Sign In".

My Pubs Account: Request Access

Support Plus - Report Flight Hours: Request Access

Requesting Pubs Access: If you know your Beechcraft account number (for invoicing purposes), enter it in the Customer ID box. Entering your account number in this box allows you access to your subscriptions plus the capability to place orders. You can also check order status and renew subscriptions online. For more information, refer to the My Pubs Account User's Guide.

If you do not know your Beechcraft account number but know your Publications Subscription Access ID number, enter it in the second box. Click Submit. This ID gives you access to your (and your company's) subscriptions. This ID is provided when an online product is purchased. Note: if you do not know your Access ID, click on Forgot your Access ID? and a Technical Manual Distribution Center (TMDC) representative will assist you via e-mail.

A message will be displayed when the request is successful.

You have successfully requested access to My Pubs Account. You will be notified once you have been granted access. Thank you.

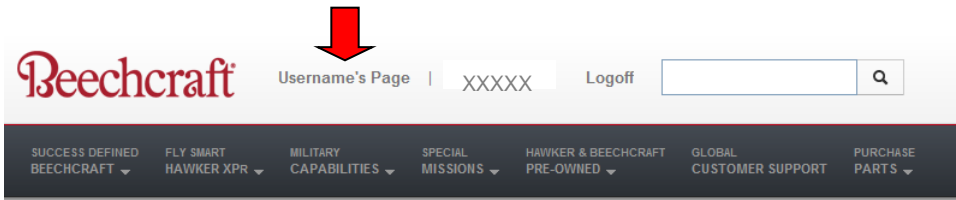

If the Access ID or Customer ID is correct or has already been entered, “Access ID Found” will be displayed and any active online subscriptions are available.

IML Online Manual and OSI libraries include links to Technical Manual Deviation Approvals (TMDA) and Parts Verifications (PV) providing the most current HBC Instructions for Airworthiness. When researching Maintenance or Parts, research the TMDA to confirm no changes or additions to your area of interest are found in the applicable manual. Each TMDA will be eliminated as related manual revisions appear in the IML. PV listings are searchable in OSI and will remain unless revised or removed. Warning—PV listings are valid for aircraft S/N(s) as of date issued. Use may require further research.
